

A celebratory scene from the Women's Premier League (WPL) 2026 final. Two players from the Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) team are shown in the center, wearing their blue and red jerseys. They are both smiling and raising their right fists in a gesture of triumph. Between them, they hold a large, ornate golden trophy with both hands. The trophy has a wide base, a slender stem, and a large cup with two handles. The background is a dark stadium at night, filled with spectators. Many fans are holding up their smartphones to capture the moment, and bright stadium lights illuminate the scene from above. Golden confetti is falling all around the players, adding to the festive atmosphere. In the top right corner, there is a red circular badge with a gold border containing the text 'WINNER 2026'.
